3. (ANON). The Cupid: A Collection of Love Songs. Derby: The Moray Press, 1891. 8vo., full blue morocco dec. in gilt, T.E.G., inner dentelles gilt, xxiii, 171pp. Wear to spine head o/w near fine. 444 copies were printed total, this is one of 288 “F’cap. 8vo on Van Gelder Paper.” $250

12. (ANON). The Pain and Sorrow of Evil Marriage. From an Unique Copy. Printed by Wynkyn de Worde. London: C. Richards, 1840. “Reprinted for the Percy Society”. 8vo., cont. half calf, 22, 8pp. relating to the Percy Society. Front free endpaper pasted down on inside upper cover, otherwise near fine. The preface states that these are three humorous tracts in verse on marriage which had been printed by Wynkyn de Worde. $150

24. CARROLL, George. Wedding Etiquette And Usages of Polite Society. (New York): Dempsey & Carroll, 1880. First edition. Sm. 8vo., dec. cloth, 126pp. Dempsey & Carroll were printers and this book seems to have been issued to advertise their work and solicit printing of invitations etc., pp. 78-126 list 36 Society Weddings in New York & other northern U.S. cities, including an Astor and Harriman. There are several plates of steel engraved invitations presumably to advertise their work. A curious little book. Some soiling to covers, near fine. $125

27. CLAY, John Cecil and Oliver Herford. Cupid’s Almanac and Guide to Hearticulture for this Year and Next. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, (1908). Reprint. Tall narrow 8vo., illustrated paper boards, (58)pp. Name, bookplate, o/w near fine in two dustwrappers with light wear. A curious example in two publisher’s dustwrappers which both differ from the pictorial boards. Both dustwrappers have circular cut-outs that reveal illustration on the upper board. The first dustwrapper copies the cover lettering but not the illustrations, and replaces the rear illustration with a quote. The second dustwrapper has the upper cover lettering and a heart-shaped doiley-esque onlay. A most interesting combination, the likes of which I have never seen on any book. (See inside front cover.) $300
